

Detroit MLK Day

Rally and March for Jobs, Peace & Justice

12 Noon

Monday, Jan. 21, 2019

NEW LOCATION

St. Matthew's St. Joseph's Episcopal Church

8850 Woodward, Detroit 48202

(between King and Holbrook)

March follows the Rally

Guest speaker

Gail Walker, the Executive Director of the Inter-religious Foundation for Community Organization (IFCO)

Gail Walker with Miguel
Díaz-Canel Bermúdez,
President of Cuba

In late April 1969, IFCO sponsored the National Black Economic Development Conference (NBEDC) at Wayne State University (WSU) which put forward the first modern-day call for reparations to be paid to African Americans for the stolen labor during slavery and the national oppression since the end of the Civil War .

Please bring donations of new hats, gloves, socks and underwear for the homeless to the Rally or Community meal at the Church on MLK Day.

To help organize or volunteer, call 313-405-2185, mlkdetroit@gmail.com

Funds needed: Please donate online at mlkdetroit.org or mail donation to:

Detroit MLK Day Committee, 5920 2nd Ave., Detroit, MI 48202